- (i) Any voting rights which may be granted to "members" of the Corporation pursuant to the DGCL ("DGCL Member Voting Rights") shall be exclusively granted to, and exclusively exercised by, the Promoters but no other Members shall have any such voting right whatsoever under the DGCL.
- (ii) If any voting rights are granted to Members of the Corporation pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or any UALink Policies without explicitly stating which class of Members of the Corporation are entitled to exercise that voting right, then such voting right shall be exercised exclusively by the Promoters (and no other Members shall have any voting right whatsoever regarding that applicable issue).
- (iii) Except for any rights which may be given to Contributors pursuant to any Work Group Policy to vote as a participant in any Work Group, the Contributors have no other voting rights whatsoever as a Member, including, without limitation, no DGCL Member Voting Rights.
- (iv) Adopters have no voting rights whatsoever, including, without limitation, no DGCL Member Voting Rights.

4.2.2.2 The following shall govern any vote of the Promoter Members pursuant to these Bylaws:

- (i) The majority of Promoter Members shall constitute a quorum for any vote or meeting of the Promoter Members.

- (iii) To the extent the Promoter Members are entitled to vote on a particular matter pursuant to these Bylaws, each Promoter Member will be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the Promoter Members.
- (iv) Any action that may be taken at any meeting of Promoter Members that is entitled to vote may be conducted using any remote communication means as contemplated under the DGCL.
- (v) Any action that may be taken at any meeting of the Promoter Members pursuant to these Bylaws may be taken without a meeting of the Promoter Members if the Corporation delivers a written ballot to every Promoter Member entitled to vote on the particular matter using any means permitted by the DGCL, including without limitation any electronic means as contemplated under the DGCL. In addition to any other requirements under the DGCL regarding content, such written ballot shall: (i) set forth each proposed action, (ii) provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action, and (iii) specify a reasonable time period set by the Board of Directors within which time to return the ballot to the Corporation. Approval by written ballot by the Promoter Members of the applicable membership class entitled to vote shall be valid when the number of votes cast by ballot, within the time period specified by the Board of Directors, equals or exceeds any quorum required that would be present at a meeting authorizing such action, and the number of votes approving the matter equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting. Ballots shall be distributed to Promoter Members of the applicable membership class entitled to vote to the last address, facsimile number, or email address of record for the applicable Member. Each Promoter Member must return their ballot to the Secretary of the Corporation or its designee within the time period specified and pursuant to the procedure set forth in such ballot.

4.2.3 Participation Policies.

In addition to other requirements and qualifications set forth in these Bylaws applicable to Applicants and Members, the Board of Directors may adopt, at any time and from time to time, policies and procedures which the Board of Directors deems appropriate related to the admission of Applicants into the Corporation, the qualifications for each of the particular classes of Members, or other requirements or qualifications for Participation as a Member in the Corporation, including without limitation any policies the Board of Directors deems necessary to allow the Corporation to comply with all laws, regulations, treaties or other governmental orders ("Participation Policies"). Participation Policies may be approved, and existing Participation Policies may be amended, by a vote of the Board of Directors pursuant to Section 5.7.8 of these Bylaws. Participation Policies shall be effective as of the date set forth therein and shall be applicable to all Members (then existing and those in the future) and all pending Applicants.

4.3 General Member and Participation Qualifications. In addition to all other qualifications and requirements for Members and their Participation set forth in these Bylaws (including, without limitation, in this Section 4), the following are additional general qualifications for Participation by an Applicant (as defined herein) and for continued Participation by a Member in the Corporation:

- (i) Applicants and Members must be supportive of the Corporation's Purposes as defined in Section 2 of these Bylaws and in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation. "Supportive of the Corporation's Purposes" means that the Member is generally supportive of the Corporation's overall efforts to create Final Specifications;
- (ii) No law, regulation, treaty or governmental order exists which would:
 - (y) prohibit or substantially interfere with the Member's ability to comply with any provisions of these Bylaws, the Member's Participation Agreement, any UALink Policy, or any other policies and procedures duly approved by the Board of Directors or with the Member's Participation in the Corporation; or
 - (z) prohibit or substantially prevent Corporation from allowing the Member's Participation in the Corporation.
- (iii) Applicant must pay, and the Member must continue to pay, the then-current annual dues applicable to the relevant Member class.

4.4 Additional Conditions Related to Admission of Members.

4.4.1 Initial Applications for Participation as a Member.

Applicants seeking admission as a Member in the Corporation (“Applicant”) at any of the membership levels must first satisfy the following conditions: (i) Applicant must submit a completed Participation Agreement to the Board of Directors; and (ii) Applicant must satisfy all requirements contemplated by these Bylaws and any UALink Policies for admission as a Member.

4.4.2 Admission as Promoter Member; Election of Promoter Members.

4.4.2.1 The number of Promoter Members shall be determined by the Board of Directors by a vote pursuant to Section 5.7.8 of these Bylaws, subject, however, to the limitations on the maximum number of allowable Promoter Members pursuant to Section 4.1.1 of these Bylaws and to any other terms and conditions set forth in this Section 4.4.2.

4.4.2.2. For purposes of these Bylaws, the Promoter Members shall be divided into two groups (“groups”), to be referred to as “Group I Promoters” and “Group II Promoters”, such division into such groups to be pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Section 4.4.2; provided, however, and for the clarity, such division of Promoter Members into such groups is and shall solely be for purposes of setting election dates of the Promoter Members, and does not denote any other distinction between any rights, obligations or privileges of the Promoter Members.

4.4.2.3. The following companies are admitted as the Corporation’s initial twelve (12) Promoter Members (individually an “Initial Promoter Company” and collectively the “Initial Promoter Companies”):

(i) The following seven (7) companies shall be admitted as Promoter Members as of the Effective Date of these Bylaws: (1) Advanced Micro Devices, Inc.; (2) Cisco Systems, Inc.; (3) Google LLC; (4) Hewlett Packard Enterprise Company; (5) Intel Corporation; (6) Meta Platforms, Inc.; and (7) Microsoft Corp.

(ii) After the effective date of these Bylaws and prior to the third anniversary date of the Effective Date of these Bylaws (hereinafter the “Third Anniversary Date”), the Board of Directors may admit (by a vote pursuant to Section 5.7.8) five (5) additional companies to serve as Promoter Members.

4.4.2.4 Prior to the Third Anniversary Date (as defined in Section 4.4.2.3 herein), the Board of Directors by a vote pursuant to Section 5.7.8 of these Bylaws, and using criteria to be agreed upon by the Board of Directors at the time of such vote, shall divide the Initial Promoter Companies, as evenly as possible, into either Group I Promoters or Group II Promoters.

4.4.2.5 Those Initial Promoter Companies designated as Group I Promoters by the Board of Directors shall have an initial term as a Promoter Member that will expire on the Third Anniversary Date, as defined in Section 4.4.2.3 of these Bylaws (hereinafter the “Three Year Initial Term”). Upon the expiration of said Three Year Initial Term, each Initial Promoter Company’s term as a Group I Promoter shall expire and each such Promoter Member position shall become an open Group I Promoter position subject to the election procedures set forth below in this Section 4.4.2 of these Bylaws.

4.4.2.6 Those Initial Promoter Companies designated as Group II Promoters by the Board of Directors shall have an initial term as a Promoter Member that will expire on the fourth anniversary date of the Effective Date of these Bylaws (hereinafter the “Four Year Initial Term”). Upon the expiration of said Four Year Initial Term, each Initial Promoter Company’s term as a Group II Promoter shall expire and each such Promoter Member position shall become an open Group II Promoter position subject to the election procedures set forth below in this Section 4.4.2 of these Bylaws.

4.4.2.7 Beginning with the expiration of the Three Year Initial Term for Group I Promoters, and every two years thereafter: (i) each Group I Promoter position shall become an open position subject to the election procedures set forth below in this Section 4.4.2 of these Bylaws; (ii) every company that is elected to an open Group I Promoter position shall continue to be designated as a Group I Promoter; and (iii) the term of each such Group I Promoter position shall be for a period of two (2) years (subject, however, to Section 4.4.2.9(iii) of these Bylaws).

4.4.2.8 Beginning with the expiration of the Four Year Initial Term for the Group II Promoters, and every two years thereafter: (i) each Group II Promoter position shall become an open position subject to the election procedures set forth below in this Section 4.4.2 of these Bylaws; (ii) every company that is elected to an open Group II Promoter position shall continue to be designated as a Group II Promoter; and (iii) the term of each such Group II Promoter position shall be for a period of two (2) years (subject, however, to Section 4.4.2.9(iii) of these Bylaws).

4.4.2.9 The following governs the nomination for, and election of, each open Group I Promoter position and each open Group II Promoter position (collectively referred to as a "Promoter Member position"):

(i) All Promoter Members and all Contributor Members in good standing are eligible to be nominated for, and seek election to, any open Promoter Member position in accordance with this Section 4.4.2.9.

(ii) The Board of Directors shall invite (at a time and by a means deemed reasonable by the Board of Directors) nominations for the election for open Promoter Member positions from all Promoter Members and all Contributor Members, provided, however, any such nominations must be submitted to the Corporation by the nominee in writing no later than thirty (30) days after the date of such notice from the Board of Directors. Nominations shall include a general description of the Member's qualifications, including its technical and marketing resources and previous participation in the Corporation.

(iii) The vote for the election of open Promoter Member positions shall be submitted to the Board of Directors prior to the expiration of the applicable term for the applicable open Promoter Member position; provided, however, that if the applicable vote has not been submitted to, or voted on, by the Board of Directors by the expiration of the applicable term, each Promoter Member holding a Promoter Member position that is subject to any such re-election shall automatically continue as a Promoter Member on a month to month basis until such election vote is held by the Board of Directors. The election vote, whenever held, shall only be effective to set the two year term of the Promoter Members as set forth above, and not to create a new term of two years from the date of such vote by the Board of Directors. By way of example only, if a 2 year term for a group of Promoter Members is set to expire on June 30, 2028 (and, thus, the subsequent 2 year term would be set to expire on June 30, 2030), and if the election by the Board of Directors takes place on August 31, 2028, the term for the applicable newly elected Promoter Member positions would still be set to expire on June 30, 2030 .

(iv) Directors may vote with respect to all Promoter Member candidates, including without limitation voting for the Promoter Member candidate that appointed them to the Board of Directors. The vote for all expiring Promoter Member positions of the same group will be held at the same time. In order to protect the confidentiality of the voting process, votes shall be conducted by secret ballot pursuant to a procedure approved by the Board of Directors.

(v) The following issues may be considered by the Board of Directors as the Board votes on the candidates proposed to fill any open Promoter Member positions:

(1) the nominee's level of Participation in, and activities on behalf of, the Corporation to date (if any);

(2) any desire to populate the Promoter level of Members with a balanced voice of industry and to account for a global perspective in order to foster more open industry-wide communication and to better fulfill the Corporation’s purposes; and

(3) any other qualifications or requirements for the Promoter level of Members that may be set forth in any UALink Policies or adopted by the Board of Directors.

(vi) All rights of a Member as a Promoter Member shall cease upon failure to be re-elected as a Promoter Member under this Section 4.4.2, in which case the following shall apply:

(1) Such Member shall automatically become a Contributor Member, provided such Member is in compliance with the other requirements of a Contributor Member under these Bylaws. The Member shall not receive any refund of membership dues already paid for the current dues period.

(2) The position of any Promoter Director selected by such Member shall be deemed to be automatically vacant under Section 5.3.3 of these Bylaws.

Nothing herein is intended to in any way limit the rights of the Corporation to terminate any Member in accordance with Section 4.10.

(vii) In electing Promoter Member positions, all Directors are eligible to vote. In each election, each Director will be given the same number of votes as the number of open Promoter Member positions subject to that election. By way of example, if six (6) Promoter Member positions are open, each Director will be given six (6) votes to vote for candidates seeking a Promoter Member position. Each Director may only cast one (1) vote per candidate. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be elected to an open Promoter Member position; provided, however, in order to be elected a candidate must receive a minimum of 50% of the votes cast for such open position. If all Promoter Member positions are not filled pursuant to the procedure above, then a run-off election will be held for each remaining open Promoter Member position pursuant to the following procedure: (i) each Director will be given the same number of votes as the number of remaining open Promoter Member positions subject to such run-off election; and (ii) the Directors shall approve a process for selecting the top candidates to run in such run-off election. Additional run-off elections will be held until all Promoter Member positions are filled; provided, however, the Board of Directors has the right to stop additional run-off elections at any time for any open Promoter Member positions that have not yet been filled after the first round of voting for such open position.

Example: 6 Open Promoter Member Positions

Candidate	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
Votes	13	12	10	9	8	8	8	8

Candidates A, B, C, & D are elected, a run-off election is held between E, F, G and H for the remaining two (2) positions.

Run-off Election

Candidate	E	F	G	H
Votes	7	6	7	6

Candidates E and G are elected.

(viii) If any Promoter Member withdraws from the Promoter level of Members or such Promoter’s status as a Member of the Corporation is terminated pursuant to these Bylaws (the “Withdrawing Promoter”),

the following shall apply:

- (1) Such Withdrawing Promoter's position as either a Group I Promoter or a Group II Promoter (as the case may be) shall automatically be deemed vacant pursuant to Section 5.3.3 of these Bylaws and shall become an open Group I Promoter position or an open Group II Promoter position (as the case may be) pursuant to this Section 4.4.2.9 of these Bylaws (hereinafter the "Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position");
- (2) The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether or not it is in the best interests of the Corporation to seek a new entity to fill the remaining term of the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position as either a Group I Promoter or a Group II Promoter (as the case may be). This determination shall be made by a vote of the Directors pursuant to Section 5.7.8 of these Bylaws. In making this determination the Board may, in its discretion, consider the following factors:
 - (x) Any reasonable factors that may indicate that it may be in the best interests of the Corporation, at that time, to seek a new entity to fill the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position as either a Group I Promoter or a Group II Promoter (as the case may be), in which case the provisions of Section 4.4.2.9(viii)(3) of these Bylaws shall apply to fill such open Promoter Member position; and
 - (xi) Any reasonable factors that may indicate that it is not necessary or desirable for the Corporation, at that time, to seek a new entity to fill the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership position, in which case the provisions of Section 4.4.2.9(viii)(4) of these Bylaws shall apply to such open Promoter Member position.

As a part of evaluating these factors, the Board may consider whether to leave the Promoter Director position vacant until the next regular election for the Group I Promoters or the Group II Promoters (as the case may be) associated with the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position.

- (3) If the Board of Directors, pursuant to Section 4.4.2.9(viii)(2) of these Bylaws, votes to seek a new entity to fill the remaining term of the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position as either a Group I Promoter or a Group II Promoter (as the case may be), then the Board of Directors will follow the provisions set forth above in this Section 4.4.2.9 of these Bylaws to solicit nomination for, and to conduct the election to fill, the open Group I Promoter position or the open Group II Promoter position (as the case may be) associated with the applicable Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position.
- (4) If the Board of Directors, pursuant to Section 4.4.2.9(viii)(2) of these Bylaws, votes not to seek a new entity to fill the Withdrawing Promoter's Membership Position, then such open Group I Promoter position or open Group II Promoter position (as the case may be) shall remain vacant pursuant to Section 5.3.3 of these Bylaws.

4.4.3 Admission as Member.

In addition to any of the other requirements of becoming or remaining a Member set forth in these Bylaws (including without limitation the provisions governing Promoter Members as set forth in Section 4.4.2 of these Bylaws), each Applicant applying to be a Member of the Corporation may be admitted as a Member (at the applicable Member level) subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

- (i) Applicant must qualify under, and once a Member must remain in compliance with, all other provisions of these Bylaws and all UALink Policies as a Member, including those applicable to its particular Member level;
- (ii) Applicant's Participation Agreement must have been fully completed, signed, and properly delivered to the Corporation or its designee;
- (iii) Applicant, once a Member, must pay, and continue to pay, all applicable membership dues as specified in the Participation Agreement.

4.5 Membership Fees.

The annual fees payable to the Corporation by each class of Members shall be established and may be changed from time to time by a vote of the Directors pursuant to Section 5.7.8 of these Bylaws. Initial fees, if any, shall be due and payable upon execution of a Participation Agreement according to terms defined in the Participation Agreement. In addition to the other termination provisions of Section 4.10, any Member that is delinquent in the payment of any fee(s) is subject to termination as a Member in accordance with Section 4.10.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors has the authority to reduce or waive Member fees for any Member class as it deems appropriate to support the purpose of the Corporation.

4.6 Number of Members.

Subject to the other provisions of this Section 4 of these Bylaws, including Section 4.1.1 with regards to Promoters, and the UALink Policies, there is no limit on the number of Members the Corporation may admit.

4.7 Member Roll.

The Corporation shall keep a Member roll containing the name and address of each Member, the date upon which the Applicant became a Member, and the name and contact information of one (1) individual from each Member organization who shall serve as a primary contact for the Corporation, receive all correspondence, notices and information on behalf of the Member, and then distribute such correspondence, notices and information within his or her Member organization. Termination of any Member shall be recorded in the roll, together with the date of termination of such Member. Such roll shall be kept by the Secretary of the Corporation. The Corporation shall use addresses and other contact information provided by Members on their Participation Agreements. If the address or other contact information of a Member changes it shall be the responsibility of the Member to provide the Corporation with updated information.

4.8 Non-liability of Members.

No Member of the Corporation, as such, shall be individually liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the Corporation.

4.9 Non-transferability of Member Status.

All rights as a Member shall cease upon the Member's dissolution.
